2013 Projects:

- On January 21, 2013, MLK Holiday (and in March, 2013) rehabilitation work was completed at the Vallejo Mare Island Museum in collaborative with sponsors, Kaiser Permanente, Kelly Moore Paints, and Recology Vallejo. More than 250 community volunteers (including 47 Kaiser employees) and local businesses donating their materials and services participated in our workday. Completed work was valued at more than $50,000 with approximately $5,000 in expenses.
- The Travis Air Museum Workday was held on MLK 2013 in collaborative with sponsors, Kaiser Permanente, and Kelly Moore Paints. More than 40 community volunteers (including 18 Kaiser employees) and local businesses donating their materials and services participated in our workday. Completed work was valued at more than $15,000 with approximately $3,000 in expenses.
- Vacaville MLK 2013 Workday was completed at the Center for Imaginative Reuse to turn this city facility from a greyhound bus terminal to a nonprofit organization. More than 45 workday volunteers (including 12 Kaiser employees) worked on rehabilitating this facility due to the generous support of our corporate sponsor, Kaiser Permanente. Volunteers worked tirelessly cleaned, painted, as well as yard work. Completed work was valued at more than $40,000 with approximately $4,000 in expenses.
- In March/ April, 2013, the Rio Vista Community / Senior Center had extensive interior work completed by volunteers. This included concrete floor repair, installation of tile flooring, debris removal, drywall replacement, electrical assessment / repairs, cleaning, painting, mold and asbestos remediation, installation of ADA toilets / grab bars, construction of new storage cabinets and landscaping. Funds for this project were donated by The City of Rio Vista, Rio Vista Citizens for Seniors, Rio Vista Community and the Rio Vista Lion's Club. The volunteer labor of more than 400 individuals and the donated materials were provided various unions including Bricklayers, Tilelayers and Allied Craftworkers Bay Area Local 3 Union, City of Rio Vista Public Works, Construction Concierge, Kevin P. Moran Construction, Randu Original Tile and Stone, Roofers and Weatherproofers Union Local 81, Shandrika's Décor and Solano County Roofing. Completed work was valued at more than $180,000 with approximately $30,000 in expenses.

- In May, 2013, the Carpenters Local 180 Union assisted Rebuilding Together Solano County with replacement of damaged exterior siding on the south facing building wall of the Vacaville Center for Imaginative Reuse. Also, Home Depot Vacaville employees donated their time in May, 2013 to complete yard work and landscaping for this community facility in Vacaville, CA.
- In August, 2013, the Vallejo Boys n Girls Club received an exterior paint job as well as extensive yard work all completed by the more than 70 community volunteers. This workday was accomplished via our 3rd Annual, A Call To Change Vallejo collaborative with Vallejo Outreach.
